MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. James Angleton

SUBJECT : Information Relating to the Report Inter-Agency Committee on Intelligence (Ad Hoc)

IEC Membership:

White House: John W. Dean III

Justice: Robert C. Mardian

FBI: George C. Moore

Treasury: Eugene Rossides

NSA: [REDACTED]

Defense: Colonel John Downie

Secret Service: Thomas T. Kelly

Intelligence Evaluation Committee met seven times between 3 December 1970 and 20 July 1971. The work of the Committee has been carried on by a permanent interagency staff, the Intelligence Evaluation Staff, which has met regularly under the Chairmanship of the Department of Justice official (currently Mr. Bernard A. Wells) from January 1971 to the present. The Agency representative, [REDACTED] contributes intelligence on foreign aspects of papers prepared by the staff. Staff papers are distributed to the White House (Mr. John Dean) and to the heads of the participating Agencies. 25X1

Mr. Tom Charles Huston, Staff Assistant to the President:

Termed himself "Staff Assistant to the President" in June and July 1969.

Memorandum from Huston dated 9 July 1970 (copy attached) states forth his role on the White House Staff with respect to domestic intelligence.

My note of 2 February 1971 (and written on the above memorandum) gives John Dean's statement that Huston is now on Dean's staff.
